Question for Answers on the Day (but not taken up)

Non-filling up of Vacancies in Bellary Medical College

619 SRI H. LINGA REDDY (Kurugodu).—Will the Minister for Health be pleased to state :—

(a) whether it has come to the notice of Government that in Bellary Medical College and in the Hospital at Bellary, the vacant posts have not been filled up from the last two years ;

(b) if so, the reasons ;

(c) when Government would fill up the posts ?

SRI H. SIDDAVEERAPPA (Minister for Health) —

(a) Yes, some vacant posts have not been filled up.

(b) (1) Due to paucity of qualified candidates in the concerned specialities in respect of promotional posts.

(2) Large number of vacancies are existing in the non clinical departments due to the fact that :—

(a) sufficient number of candidates were not selected by the Public Service Commission, as the 76 posts in non-clinical subjects were re-advertised by the P.S.C. in view of certain amendments issued in respect of these posts ;

(b) several candidates working in non-clinical subjects left their services after resigning the posts.

(3) Some candidates are doing Post-graduate studies in Mysore and Bangalore.
